A Report on Drug abuse and illicit Trafficking Awareness

A drug abuse and illicit trafficking awareness programme with the theme "SAY NO TO DRUGS" was held on Wednesday, December 20, 2023, by the Red Ribbon and Youth Red Cross Unit in collaboration with the Channarayapatna Police Department. Beginning at 10.30 a.m., the programme began with a public awareness rally around Channarayapatna main streets. Then the programme was organized in Ganapathipandal in the presence of Dr. Nirupama M, Convener, Red Cross Unit, our Principal Dr. Manjunath M K, Circle Inspector Mr. K M Vasanth, Town Station Sub Inspector Mr. Bharath Kumar Reddy, Rural Station Sub Inspector Mr. Santhosh L, Traffic Station Sub Inspector Mr. P.Siddaraju and Traffic Police Mrs. Aswini.

All of the dignitaries were greeted by Mr. Bharath Kumar Reddy, who also discussed the dangers of drug addiction and how voluntary drug abuse prevention committees could be an additional useful tool in the fight against drug abuse in the community. Next, Mrs. Ashwini discusses the illicit drug trade, also known as drug trafficking, which is a worldwide underground market devoted to the production, distribution, and sale of illegal drugs. Drug prohibition laws and traffic rules and regulations are used by most jurisdictions to forbid the trade of various drugs, unless they are sold under licence, to our students. Dr. Nirupama M. gave a vote of thanks after Dr. Manjunath M. K. gave the presidential address.
