IMPORTANCE AND USE OF HISTORICAL RECORDS

Date 30-03-2024

A Brief Report

The Department of History in Association with IQAC Organized the Program entitled “Importance and use of Historical records” on 30/03/2024 at the seminar hall. The program commenced with welcome address by Head of the department Mr. Shekhimran , soonafter the inauguration of the programme began special lecture from the chief guest Mr.Manjunatha H L, Senior assistant director divisional registrar’s office Mysore. He reminded our duty to preserve the historical records. Resuming his speech he stated that records were a valuable part of the nation's heritage, preservation of heritage is the duty to every citizen of the nation.

Karnataka State Records Department started in 1973. It collects specific and official documents about 160 years old and works to provide information for use by the public, researchers and government departments. Records are in the form of files, minutes, orders, annual reports, speeches, maps, papers, photographs, newspapers, audio recordings, documents. These documents include History of Karnataka, History of the establishment of Mysore, Documents on the Karnataka Unification Movement, Freedom Struggle, Mysore/Karnataka Administrative Information, Proceedings of the Development Schemes of the Government of the Maharaja of Mysore, Sense Reports prepared for the development of the country in all dimensions, Proceedings of the People's Assembly established for the benefit of the citizens Government Orders. The proceedings and orders of the then Madras province and the files (black book) related to the administration period of Dewan Purnaiya and the voice collection records of the memories of the prominent people who worked hard for the country have been preserved. Various documents have been preserved from about 1860 to 2019. At present about 1.20 crore documents have been digitized and placed on the department's website. Documents can be viewed on the web at www.kannadasiri.kar.nic.in.

The Government of Karnataka enacted the Public Records Act 2013 as the preservation and maintenance of records is very important. This Act deals with preservation of records, classification of records, and destruction of records. Mentioned .Determine the values of the records and divide the records into four categories ABCD. Compulsorily all government offices are referred to maintain records under this Act.

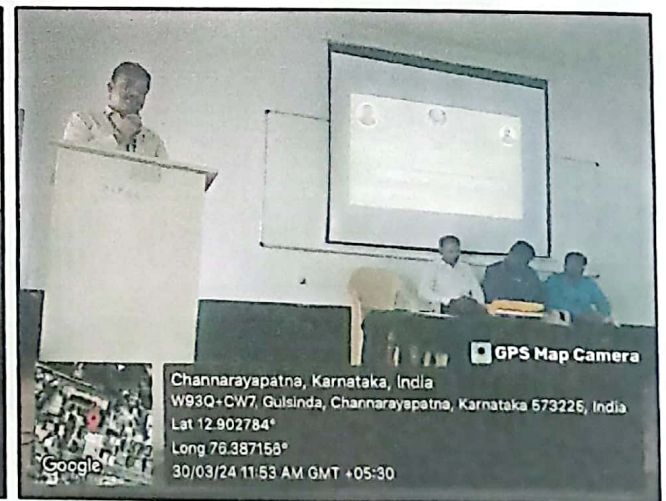

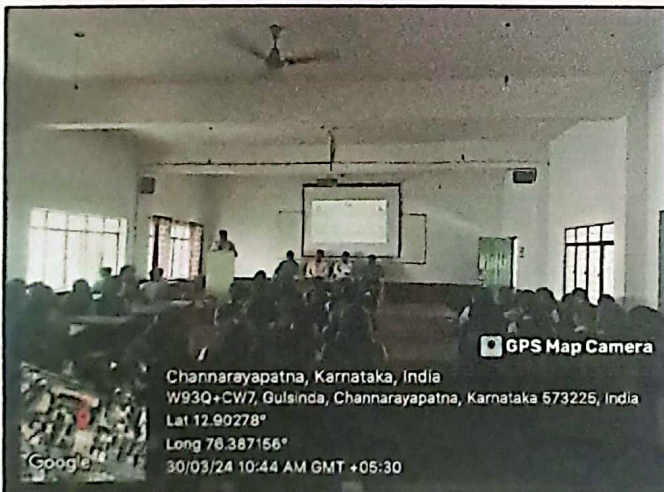

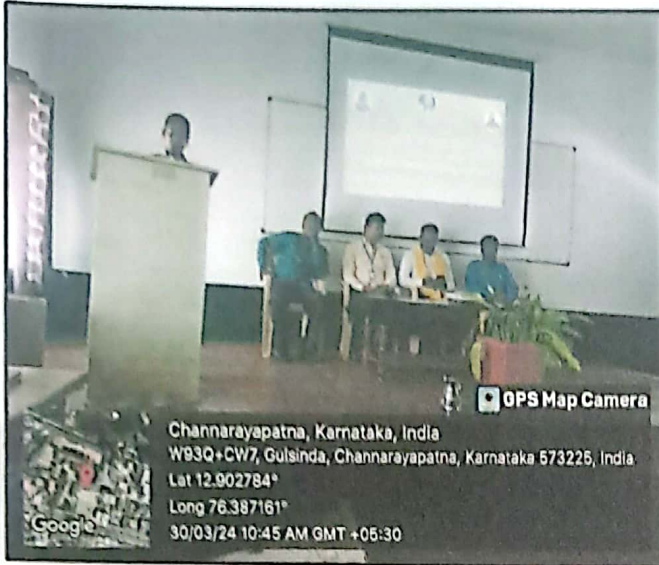

Finally Dr.M.K. Manjunatha principal reminded the contribution of Mysore state in his presidential address. The participants utilized and made this programme successful.
