Report on Special Lecture: "Women's Rights and Responsibilities" (02-04-2025)

On April 2, 2025, at 10:30 AM, the Department of Sociology organized a special lecture on "Women's Rights and Responsibilities" at Lecture Hall 201. The event featured prominent legal professionals and members of the Taluk Legal Service Committee, Channarayapatna, as chief guests and resource persons.

The session was graced by Smt. Aruna Kumari A., Senior Civil Judge and President of the Taluk Legal Service Committee, and Smt. Madhushree R.M., 2nd Additional Civil Judge, Channarayapatna, who served as the chief guest and resource person for the event. Sri Sundar Raj, President, and Mr. Manjesh, Treasurer of the Taluk Legal Service Committee, were also present.

Smt. Aruna Kumari A. highlighted the equal rights women possess, particularly in ancestral property, and stressed the importance of women utilizing their constitutional rights to protect and empower themselves. Smt. Madhushree R.M. spoke about women's growing participation across various fields including education, politics, economics, and social sectors. She encouraged women to take full advantage of the rights and opportunities provided by the Indian Constitution. She also referred to key legislations like the Hindu Marriage Act, the Child Marriage Prohibition Act, the Dowry Prohibition Act, the Reproductive Rights Act, the Property Rights Act, and the Widow Remarriage Act. Sri Sundar Raj emphasized the transformative power of education in enabling women to achieve success in life. Mr. Manjesh shed light on various forms of violence faced by women—ranging from child marriage and domestic abuse to dowry harassment—and called for collective courage to stand up and protest against such injustices.

The program began with an invocation song by Bhavana, a second-year B.Sc. student. Following the welcome address by Dr. Praveen Kumar S., Head of the Department of Sociology, the dignitaries initiated the program by watering plants as a symbolic gesture. Mr. Lokesh G.S., Assistant Professor, anchored the event, while Mr. Siddaraju, Assistant Professor, delivered the formal vote of thanks.

The session was enlightening and underscored the vital role of awareness and legal literacy in empowering women in society.
