Report on Farewell Ceremony on 21/05/2025

The students of First and Second Year B.Sc. at Sri Adichunchanagiri First Grade College, Channarayapatna, organized a heartfelt farewell ceremony to bid adieu to the outgoing batch of final year B.Sc. students on 21st May 2025. The event was held in Seminar Hall 201 and commenced at 10:00 AM with divine blessings.

The program began with a serene prayer led by Miss Apoorva, a student of II B.Sc., invoking blessings for the success and well-being of the final year students. The gathering was warmly welcomed by Miss Lavanya G M, a student of I B.Sc., who expressed her heartfelt greetings to the dignitaries, teachers, and fellow students. The Head of the Department of Zoology, Dr. Nirupama M, gave an inspiring introductory talk, highlighting the journey of the outgoing batch and offering guidance for their future endeavors.

The invited guest speaker, Mr. Srikanta H M, Lecturer at Times PU College, Channarayapatna, delivered an impactful and deeply motivational address to the outgoing final year B.Sc. students. In his speech, Mr. Srikanta emphasized the importance of self-belief, encouraging students to trust their abilities and never underestimate their potential. He stated that while college life is a memorable chapter, the real journey of life begins after graduation. He urged students to embrace the challenges that lie ahead as opportunities for growth. He drew from personal experiences and real-life examples to illustrate how perseverance, hard work, and maintaining a positive attitude can lead to success, even in the face of failure. He stressed that success is not measured by grades alone, but by character, discipline, and one's ability to stay grounded during both success and setbacks. A key highlight of his talk was a message on values and ethics. He reminded students that in a world driven by competition, staying true to one's principles and showing empathy and kindness will always set them apart.

The Principal of SAFG College, Dr. M.K. Manjunatha, delivered the presidential talk. He congratulated the final year students on their academic achievements and encouraged them to uphold values and contribute meaningfully to society. The formal session concluded with a vote of thanks by Miss Lavanya, I B.Sc., who expressed gratitude to all the dignitaries, faculty, and students who made the event a success. The event was gracefully hosted by Miss Lekhana and Miss Harshitha, students of II B.Sc., who kept the audience engaged throughout the program with their lively and respectful anchoring.
