Report on National Library Week 2024

National Library Week was held at the Library and Information Centre from November 14–15, 2024, by the Department of Library and Information Centre in collaboration with AQAC, Sri Adichunchanagiri First Grade College, Channarayapatana.

The celebration has its roots in a custom started by the "Architect of the Public Library Movement in India," Shri Iyyanki Venkata Ramanayya. On November 14, 1912, he called a gathering of all India libraries in Madras, which resulted in the establishment of the Indian Library Association (ILA). November 14 was thereafter designated as National Library Day by ILA. Since 1968, November 14–20 has been observed nationwide as National Library Week, raising public awareness of libraries
