Report on "Awareness, Early Detection and Prevention of Breast and Cervical Cancer"

On Saturday, May 20th, 2023, the SAFG College Youth Red Cross & Redribbon Unit in collaboration with Department of Zoology was organized a guest lecturer Programme on "Awareness, Early Detection and Prevention of Breast and Cervical Cancer" to raise awareness among students and faculties. The programme was commenced with prayer by Tharun Gowda, BA student. Mrs Radhamma K M, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology extends a warm welcome to the guest and programme was inaugurated by watering plant. The program's host, Dr. Nirupama M., Convenor of Youth Red Cross & Redribbon unit, introduced Resource Person Dr. Amitha K, Professor, Department of Pathology, ACU, BG Nagar to the students and faculties. A formal vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Arpitha H.J, Department of Physics. Mrs. Kavitha J N, the Librarian narrated the programme.

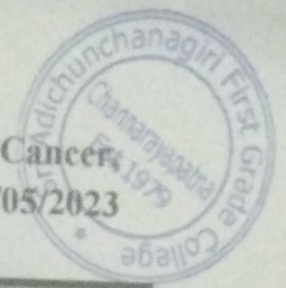

The chief guest of the programme, Dr Amitha K explained the causes of breast and cervical cancer as follows: smoking, genes, alcohol, an unhealthy lifestyle, junk food, and obesity. She advised girls and boys to get the HPV vaccine and mentioned that the best way to prevent cervical cancer is through routine cervical screening. She also explained the early screening of breast cancer by mammography, MIR, and breast self-examination, which she explained with video. Cervical Cancer by PAP Test, and she has suggested going for HPV vaccination, and she explained an Indian-made vaccine. The Serum Institute of India launched Cervavac, a quadrivalent HPV vaccine that it developed in partnership with the Indian government.
